HOMECOMING - 2010

March 1, 2010

Dear Friend of La Salette,

Our annual homecoming celebration at La Salette was a wonderful weekend for the almost 400 people in attendance. Events included the junior class's excellent performance of Ten Little Indians by Agatha Christie. A contingent from our sister school from St. Mary's, Kansas travelled to Illinois arriving in time for the play. On Saturday after the beautiful Solemn High Mass a dodge ball tournament was enjoyed by all participants from students to alumni. Parents met with teachers for academic conferences and had the opportunity to spend time with their boys during the day. In the afternoon the basketball games began with the traditional La Salette freshmen intrasquad game followed by the main event against St. Mary's. The Lions were victorious in both the junior varsity (42-21) and varsity (58-43) games. The banquet, manfully prepared by the intrepid kitchen crew, provided a good time for post-game socialization. Eight of the eleven 2009 graduates along with alums from other classes attended the festivities and were helpful with campus work during their stay – having not forgotten the routine of “jobs” to keep the Academy running smoothly.

Please enjoy the accompanying pictures knowing that your generosity allows us to have such important and enjoyable activities for our students and families. Thank you for helping form Catholic men!

In Christ the King,

M. M. McMahon
