

+
M

NOTRE DAME DE LA SALETTE BOYS ACADEMY

FR. MICHAEL MCMAHON
HEADMASTER

September 1, 2009

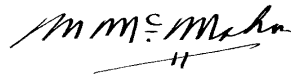

Dear Friend of La Salette,

As the dog days of summer pass and the cool autumn breeze begins to blow, the school bell is not long from ringing. School days are for the formation of a man; to cooperate with God's grace while forming body and soul, bringing each child to his "fullness in Christ." While we re-dedicate ourselves to this most noble and necessary work of formation in these last days of preparation, let us remind ourselves that this formation in Christ – i.e., our sanctification – is truly a life-long task. The beauties and glories of our Holy Faith, the divine and life-giving mysteries of grace are to be ever probed and learned and loved.

With a new school year approaching for our children, let us resolve to go "back to school" and dig deeper into the science of the saints. Choose a semester's worth of books in various disciplines: spiritual, historical, liturgical, apologetics, etc.

Find below a suggested reading/studying list for your aid. May Our Lady, Seat of Wisdom, be ever your guide, faithfully at your side, as you increase your knowledge and love of Eternal Wisdom, Our Lord and our God.

In Christ the King,

Father Michael McMahon

Some Recommended Readings:

Our Lady of Fatima – William Thomas Walsh (Image Press)

The Mass of All Time – Archbishop Lefebvre (Angelus Press)

My Queen and My Mother (Lepanto Press)

Lord of the World – Robert Hugh Benson (Neumann Press)

Why Catholics Eat Fish on Friday? – Michael Foley (Angelus Press)

Ten Dates Every Catholic Should Know – Diane Moczar (Sophia Institute Press)

Father Brown Mysteries – G.K. Chesterton